Thank you for your consideration and approval.

Kevin Ross

As co-owner of DeLozier Realty & Auction, I have spent more than two decades helping clients across Blount County and beyond achieve their real estate goals. I hold several advanced industry designations, underscoring my commitment to professionalism and expertise in my field. I believe trust is the foundation of every successful relationship - whether in business or in service to the community - and I consistently strive to lead with that principle in mind. I have been a lifelong advocate for community involvement and actively support numerous nonprofit and faith-based organizations. I also frequently donate my auctioneering services to local fundraising events and causes close to my heart.
