If you answered "other," please indicate your expertise or interests:

My work makes me uniquely capable of balancing myriads of opinions and personalities with the ability to hold space for all of them and work toward mutually

5) What do you see as the library's role in the community? agreeable solutions.

I see the library as a beacon for the entire community It's a place where curiosity and learning thrive and imagination run wild. I believe libraries are some of society's greatest equalizers—where anyone is able to fill their cup with knowledge and learn more about the world around them.

By submitting this Information Sheet, I affirm that the facts outlined in it are accurate and complete.
